Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Donna Arbogast began employment with Job Service of South Dakota in Watertown as a seasonal employee in 1956, then became a permanent Job Service representative on July 8, 1964; and,

WHEREAS, For more than 27 years, Donna has been helping people find gainful employment or upgraded employment and, for the last five years, has served as the unemployment insurance lead person in the Watertown office; and,

WHEREAS, Throughout her career as a state employee, Donna exemplified the professional, dedicated and hard-working image we all strive for; and,

WHEREAS, After her diligent service to the people of the Watertown area and the larger community that is South Dakota, Donna has decided to retire; and,

WHEREAS, Donna's last day with Job Service in Watertown is Friday, August 4, 1989; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of the milestones in the lives of South Dakota's dedicated and loyal public servants:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 4, 1989, as in South Dakota, and I join her husband Keith, sons Doug and Jeff, daughter Nina, and her grandchildren in wishing Donna an enjoyable and rewarding retirement full of gardening and other activities.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twentieth Day of July, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
